

Our Mission

ImpressYourPartner.com was started for one reason; its founder spent weeks on the Internet looking for a similar site, but could not find one. The task was clear create a site that allows its visitors to browse hundreds of different excellent venues, which are ideally suited to couples looking for somewhere great to spend their time together.

We aim to be the on-line site of choice for couples, of all sexes and ages, who are looking for that special venue to spend some quality time with their partner.

Our job is also to source companies for our visitors which can assist them with the planning & procurement for events such as engagement parties, wedding receptions, anniversaries & birthday celebrations etc.

How we work

- We only make contact with those companies which have been searched for using the search function via our website on the ImpressYourPartner.com Homepage
- Businesses can either provide us with the text and images for their business, or one of our consultants can compile and put together the listing on your behalf, FREE OF CHARGE
- Once live, our venues get their own log-in details in order that they can amend their listings text/images according to what they are promoting at any specific time.
- If a visitor leaves positive feedback about one of our clients, then we email the company in order to share the positive feedback
- All the profit from the site goes directly back into marketing the website, and your business!

Site Promotion

As mentioned above, another unique attribute for ImpressYourPartner.com is that, currently, we re-invest ALL PROFIT back into promoting the site. No other website has this 'modus operandi', and therefore no other site can offer similar value for money at such low cost as that offered by ImpressYourPartner.com

We promote IYP.com using a myriad of various mediums. These include, but are not limited to, Key Words, Publication advertising, promotional events, FaceBook, Myspace, YouTube, occasional radio advertising, email promotions, word of mouth referrals, 3rd party networking sites, inserts plus much more.

Pricing Strategy

Our aim is not to try to convince businesses to sign complicated contracts that mean you, the customers, are tied into minimum terms. We want to look after our customers and our visitors, and we do not think that a 'hard sell' is necessary for ImpressYourPartner.com, as the site speaks largely for itself.

The cost for a full 12 month listing is £74.95p. Please email contact@impressyourpartner.com for more details.

Customers can either pay by standing order, monthly BACs payment or via cheque. There are no contracts to sign. There are no 'minimum terms'. There are no 'early cancellation penalties'. There are no hidden charges. YOU have total control over your advert, including your pictures, and the adverts content.
